Stereotypes in Children's Literature:

We were pleased to have Carol Corcoran from the Separate School Board with us at our last meeting. She presented an interesting and informative talk on stereotypes in various children's books. She brought many samples of both good and bad books for everyone to look at. Everyone found this presentation to be very informative. Some members also took down the names of some of the books for their own libraries or for themselves. Congratulations!

We would like to extend our congratulations to Cheryl and Jerry Horton on the occasion of the birth of their daughter Lesley Jerrene Horton, born on December 7, 1976.
