John Colombo

"Next to the originator of a good sentence is the first quoter of it."
-Emerson

We are pleased to announce that John Colombo, the First Man of Canadian quotations, will be guest speaker at Dimensions, the Sixth Annual OALT/ABO Conference May 26, 1979.

You may know him from his book Colombo's Concise Canadian Quotations, or from his column which appears monthly in The Canadian Magazine, but please don't mix him up with Peter Falk's Columbo!

Mr. Colombo has a broad background in Canadian poetry and literature. He should prove to be a stimulating, sensitive, and intelligent speaker and we hope that you will enjoy him.

-Angela Rose
