OALT/ABO 39TH Annual Conference

La 29e conférence annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Although slow in coming this year, winter has finally spread its icy fingers. Before we know it, the warm spring breezes will be upon us and with them the opportunity to enjoy the rolling hills, kettle lakes and wooded valleys of King City.

The 2012 OALT/ABO Conference is being held at Seneca College's King City campus from May 2-5, 2012. The King City location as part of the Oak Ridges Moraine offers us the opportunity to learn about the unique characteristics of the campus during a session on team building with Alf Grigg, a faculty member in Seneca's Outdoor Programs . We have organized workshops and speakers covering a variety of topics relevant and timely to our work as library technicians as well as general interest sessions for all to enjoy! But it won't be all hard work, we have an evening of entertainment, our yearly awards banquet and we will wrap up the conference with our Annual Business Meeting on Saturday afternoon.

A beautiful location, lots to learn and the company of old and new friends! This year's conference promises to be better than ever! Why don't you come out and join us in blazing new trails!

Carolyn Toppan
Conference Coordinator 2012/
Coordonnatrice de la conference 2012
OALT/ABO

Chers collègues et ami(e)s,

Bien que l'hiver canadien s'est fait attendre, son froid mordant a maintenant tout recouvert de son manteau blanc. Le temps aidant, la brise printanière soufflera bien assez tôt son haleine tiède sur le paysage de la région de la ville King et nous dévoilera monts et vallées, arbres bourgeonnants et lacs qui auront bien digéré leur couvert de glace...

La 39e conférence de l'ABO/OALT se tiendra au Collège Seneca au campus King du mercredi 2 mai au samedi 5 mai 2012. La ville de King et le secteur Moraine offrent l'opportunité unique d'apprendre lors d'une session de consolidation d'équipe avec Alf Grigg, membre du programme de récréologie et de plein-air du collège Seneca. Nous avons organisé des ateliers avec des conférenciers qui nous entretiendront d'une variété de sujets pertinents et d'actualité pour les bibliothécarien(ne)s ainsi que des thèmes plus généraux susceptibles de plaire à tous. Après le travail, le plaisir : nous vous offrons des activités sociales divertissantes ainsi que notre banquet méritas annuel. La réunion annuelle d'affaire de samedi après-midi clôturera cette 39e conférence.

Un site enchanteur, tant de choses à apprendre et la rencontre avec des ami(e)s et de nouveaux visages : voilà ce que cette 39e conférence vous offre avec la promesse de toujours faire mieux. Pourquoi ne pas vous joindre à nous et découvrir de nouvelles voies?!?

Special Events / Événements spéciaux

Wine and Cheese Reception

Wednesday May 2 / mercredi le 2 mai, 6:00 -9:00 p.m. (no charge)

Join us for the opening social event of the conference, our Wine & Cheese Reception. The Seneca community has many faculty, staff, alumni and students who have been involved with the Library and Information Technician Program in some way. We would like to extend an invitation to all of you to join us in the reception room on the main floor of the residence. We will be welcomed by Tanis Fink, Chief Librarian and Manager of Seneca Libraries. It's the perfect opportunity to catch up with old friends attending the conference or to get acquainted with some new attendees. If you are a Seneca student or grad, tell your classmates about the reception and invite them to join us!

Tour Ontario Legislative Assembly and the Ontario Legislative Library

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai, 8 a.m. (no charge)

Note: Bus will be leaving promptly at 8 a.m. from the front of Garriock Hall.

President's Welcome

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai, lunchtime (no charge)

Seneca College President David Agnew will welcome all conference delegates during lunch on Thursday.

Key Note Speaker & Dinner - The Internet is Making Us Stupid. Not!

Michael Ridley, University of Guelph

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai, 5:30-7:00 p.m. ($25.00)

It's a crazy world we live in. The pace of technological change is bewildering and some people just want it all to go away. Not me and I hope not you. There has never been a more exciting time to be in the information world. This is the golden age we will talk about years from now. The information ecology of the 21st century is rich with amazing tools and extraordinary resources (and yes, the odd challenge or concern as well). Let's explore what we have and where we are going. Fasten your seatbelts.

Michael Ridley is the former Chief Information Officer (CIO) and Chief Librarian at the University of Guelph. He is currently on sabbatical and, among other things, writing a "book-like-thing" about the future of literacy. Mike is a past president of the Ontario Library Association and the Canadian Association for Information Science. Currently serving on the Board of Directors of ORION (the Ontario Research and Innovation Optical Network), Mike formerly was a Board member of the Canadian Research Knowledge Network (CRKN), the Canadian Association of Research Libraries (CARL), the Ontario Council of University Libraries (OCUL), and the Canadian University Council of CIOs (CUCCIO). He is a failed rock star.

Karaoke

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai, 7:00-10:00 p.m. (Free)

Are you a closet performer? Do you sing in the shower? Come out for a fun-filled evening and show us your inner Celine Dion!

Sheena Easton

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai, 7:15 – 10:00 p.m. ($60 + HST)

Join us for a fun filled evening of entertainment by multiple Grammy award winner Sheena Easton at the Richmond Hill Centre for the Performing arts. Bus will leave promptly at 7:15 p.m. from the front of Garriock Hall.

Tour McMichael Art Gallery

Friday May 4 / vendredi le 4 mai, 8:00 a.m. (No Charge)

Book early as there is limited space on the tour.

OALT/ABO Awards Banquet

Friday May 4 / vendredi le 4 mai, 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. ($45)

Our awards banquet this year will start out with a demonstration of some Raptor visitors from the Ontario Falconry Centre. Come out to learn a bit about falconry and see some of these spectacular feathered friends up close!

Annual Business Meeting

Saturday May 5 / samedi le 5 mai 1:30-3:30 p.m. ($10 for box lunch)

The annual business meeting is your chance to participate directly in the decision-making activities of your association. Come join us for lunch and get involved in the running of OALT/ABO.

Workshops and Tours / Ateliers et visites guides

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai
8:45 - 10:15 a.m.	1. Pajama Reference: Providing Virtual Reference To Students Kathryn Klages, Information Services Librarian, Seneca College Curious about the benefits of delivering reference online? Want to initiate or improve virtual reference service? This hands-on workshop is your chance to experiment with chat technologies and practice tips to providing research help without the benefits of being face-to-face with your pajama clad students.	2. Great Tools Make Great Teams Alf Grigg, Professor, Outdoor Programs & Recreation, Seneca College "Life challenges us with the fact that everything can be done better" During a walk you will have the opportunity to share and learn creative tools for team building using the natural environment of the Campus. We will test these team building tools by paddling together as a team across Lake Seneca in a Voyageur Canoe. You will be able to take away at least ten team building tools that you can use in your own work environment. (Limited to 16 participants. This is a double session which runs until noon. Rain or shine come prepared to walk the hiking trails and paddle the voyageur canoes!)	3. TOUR: Ontario Legislative Assembly and the Ontario Legislative Library Join us for a tour of the Ontario Legislative Assembly & the Ontario Legislative Library. This is the Centennial year for the Library in its current location. A fire in 1909 destroyed the West Wing of the Legislature where the former Library was housed. Now located in the North Wing, we are celebrating 100 years in this location. 2012 is the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the 200th anniversary of the War of 1812; exhibits related to these events are planned throughout the year. (Tour will return to the campus by noon)
10:15 - 10:30 a.m.	Break
10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	4. Free, Open Source and Cloud Tools for Libraries Jennifer Peters, Teaching and Learning Technologies Librarian, Seneca College This session will demonstrate free, open source and cloud tools invaluable for libraries. There are thousands of online tools available for libraries (whether open source, in the cloud, or just free) and this session will demonstrate real-world examples of how some of those tools can be used to enhance collaboration, communication, promotion and instruction.	5. Great Tools Make Great Teams Continues Alf Grigg, Professor, Outdoor Programs & Recreation, Seneca College This is a continuation of session 2 which started at 8:45 a.m.	6. Lunch

Welcome to delegates by Seneca College President David Agnew

1:30 - 3:00 p.m.

7. Database Searching – Business Resources

Delia Antonacci, Professor, School of Legal and Public Administration, Seneca College

Got a business question? Finding the answer often depends on who asked the question and requires looking at multiple entry points. Whether you work in a public, academic or private library this session is for you. Join Delia Antonacci as she takes you through the different digital products that provide business information and the levels of research you will encounter in each type of library.

8. Promoting Your Library Using Photostory

Lorraine Campbell, York Region District School Board

The use of technology has been proven to engage audiences. Microsoft Photo Story is a free application that enables users to create digital stories or presentations by combining photos, narration and music. This is an innovative, informative and creative tool for drawing in library patrons. This session is a demonstration of the basic steps of creating a digital presentation. Ideas on the different ways that Photo Story can be used to promote libraries will be offered and participants will have the opportunity to discuss the use of Photo Story and brainstorm further ideas on how it might be useful.

9. Attracting New Generations to Libraries

Gail Strachan, Information Service Librarian, Seneca College and Sara Niro, Reference Technician, Seneca College

Generation X, Y and now Generation Z! Learn about engaging the next generation of library users. Digital natives are already proficient in Smartphone use and Internet searching. How does the library community keep up and keep them engaged? Discover some useful techniques to attract the next generation to the library.

3:00 - 3:15 p.m.

Break

Thursday May 3 / jeudi le 5 mai

3:15 - 4:45 p.m.	10. Strengthening Medical Library Services in Ethiopia: An International Collaboration Sandra Kendall, Vicky Lynham, Mount Sinai Hospital In an innovative partnership between U of T Libraries, Mount Sinai Hospital and Addis Ababa University, Sandra Kendall and her team members first went to Ethiopia in 2008 to collaborate in sharing library expertise and resources. We first heard of this exciting collaboration from Sandra at our conference in Barrie back in 2009. Join Sandra and Vicky in this follow up session that looks at the process of preparing educational materials, the contributions of both librarians and library technicians to the program, the pitfalls and successes of the program, and to hear about their experiences teaching in Addis Ababa.	11. Children's Programming Jamianne Fournier, Information Associate, Milton Public Library Learn how to plan and deliver programs for babies, toddlers and preschoolers. This will be a time of sharing tools and resources with practical suggestions for books, songs, rhymes, activities and puppets. It will also include demonstrations for programming based on the early literacy principles from the ALA "Every Child Ready to Read" program as well as impromptu drop-in programs. This session is for those starting out or anyone looking for new ideas.	12. Push the Value Button Maggie Weaver It's not an "Easy" button, but there are many ways to convince your boss that you and your information service are valuable to customers and stakeholders. Learn how to be persuasive, and make the case with words and numbers.
5:30 - 7:00 p.m.	Pub Night Dinner - Featuring Key Note Speaker Mike Ridley
7:00 - 10:00 p.m.	Option 1 - Karaoke	Option 2 - Sheena Easton

Friday May 4 / Vendredi le 4 mai

8:45 - 10:15 a.m.	13. Do You Think It's Contagious? Conducting Health Research Kathryn Klages, Information Services Librarian, Seneca College Do health sciences databases intimidate you? Is it time to face CINAHL, ProQuest Nursing & Allied Health Source, and OVID? We can do it together. Let's breakdown some health searches and show those databases who's boss! Together, we'll form and execute searches in some of the most infectious nursing databases.	14. Money Management Penny Cheung Williams, PCWS Financial Do you know how money really works? Do you have financial goals or done any financial planning? If not, you're not alone. Come out and get some tips on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How money really works • The impact of emotions on how you handle money • The basics of investment 	15. TOUR: McMichael Art Gallery Known for only collecting Canadian art, the McMichael Canadian Art Collection has a vast collection of works by Tom Thomson, the "Group of Seven" and their contemporaries. Join us for a tour of this unique art gallery and experience Canadian landscape paintings in the environment that inspired their creation! Limited to 25 participants.
10:15 - 10:30 a.m.	Break
10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	16. Library Content on LibGuides and Online Student Expectations Jane Foo, Digital Services, Web & Information Systems Librarian, Seneca College Providing students with relevant academic content online can be a nebulous experience: We aren't sure what they look for, when they are looking and if they are happy with what they found. One way to deal with this uncertainty is to offer subject-specific customized content. We will take a look at LibGuides / CampusGuides and present various ways in which this platform may be used to support library services.	17. Advocacy: Standing Up For What's Important Kris Rushowy – Toronto Star – Education Report Katie Hammer – Globe & Mail – Education Report Justine Lewkowicz – Newstalk 1010 – Reporter & Anchor Moderator: Michael David Reansbury, President 2011-2012 OALT/ABO Local, national and international media sources are rife with stories regarding the war on libraries. Not only as library workers but also as taxpayers and users of libraries, library technicians occupy a unique position when it comes to advocating for libraries. However, because of our love of, and intrinsic recognition of the value of libraries we often assume others feel the same way. This means that when it comes to being the voice for libraries, library technicians go unheard. The panel will explore how library technicians can garner media, be it locally, nationally or internationally, to advocate not only for libraries but for library technicians.	18. TOUR: McMichael Art Gallery This is a continuation of the tour that started at 8:45 a.m.

Friday May 4 / Vendredi le 4 mai
12:00 - 1:30 p.m.		Lunch
1:30 - 3:00 p.m.	19. Microsoft Excel: Data Management Joe Crangle, Co-ordinator, Staff Development, Seneca College Are you confused by the ins and outs of Excel? Come join Joe and learn how to organize data using Excel's data tools and functions. During the session you will learn about: * organizing a large data set * sorting * filtering * DSUM, SUBTOTAL functions	20. Taming the Tsunami: Best Practices in E-mail Records Management for Small Organizations Suzanne LeBlanc, Canada Pension Plan Investment Board Even small organizations generate large quantities of e-mails, but when a professional services firm moves all client correspondence from traditional formats (letter, fax and phone) to e-mail, a rigorous approach to electronic records management is required. Best practices must take account of legal requirements, technology challenges and existing corporate culture. Suzanne will share her experience with you, along with suggestions that can be applied in almost any work environment.	21. Innovation Boot Camp: Learn Faster M.J. D'Elia, Learning & Curriculum Support Team Librarian and Robin Bergart, User Experience Librarian, University of Guelph Libraries claim innovation as a core value, but what does that really mean? In many libraries innovation is happening only occasionally, haphazardly, and at an individual level. What can we do to overcome the status quo and identify exciting new directions? This active learning session will focus on how injecting simple creative problem solving strategies (e.g. brainstorming, lateral thinking, storytelling, etc.) can transform your everyday work environment. By making innovation a more deliberate and pervasive part of your job, you'll be amazed at how you can generate ideas more quickly, boost overall productivity, and build high-performing teams.
3:00 - 3:15 p.m.	Break
3:15 - 4:45 p.m.	22. Strategic Social Media Engagement Nicole Paterson, Manager of Marketing Communications, Burlington Public Library The new era of social media/Web 2.0 is having a major impact on how libraries communicate with key audiences. The world of one-way communication is rapidly changing. Explore how libraries can take advantage of the opportunities and deal with the challenges presented by this new universe by employing a strategic approach.	23. C3: Customer Centred Classification Fred Whitmarsh and Penny Barclay, Markham Public Library Developed by Markham Public Library, C3 replaces Dewey with a classification system based on customer friendly subject categories and shorter 4-digit call numbers for non-fiction items. Learn more about the benefits of C3 and how it facilitates browsing, makes finding intuitive and makes sorting, shelving, shelf-reading and pulling holds easier and faster for staff.	24. I'm Retired Now What Doug Willford & Liz Aldrey Keep yourself involved, informed and NOT inactive. What do you do after retirement? Things to think about as you look forward to retirement. This session will not be dealing with financial planning.
6:00 - 9:00 p.m.	OALT/ABO Awards Banquet – Pod C – Garriock Hall Featuring the medieval sport of Kings - Falconry! Join us and Sam Trentadue from the Ontario Falconry Centre for a demonstration of the hunting and aerial skills of several raptors including a Bald Eagle, Great Horned Owl, and several small Falcons. Be prepared for an outdoor pre-diner demonstration!

Saturday May 5 / Samedi le 5 mai
8:45 - 10:15 a.m.	25. Microsoft Word: Paragraph Power Joe Crangle, Coordinator Staff Development, Seneca College Do the changes to Word perplex you? Join Joe in this session where you will learn to: * create automatic paragraph spacing to help format documents faster * create multi-level outline style bullets and automatically update numbering * creating first line and hanging indents without manual tabbing	26. StrengthsFinder 2.0 Lisa Eschli, Information Specialist, GlaxoSmithKline Everyone has something they do really well. What is the unique talent you have to offer? Do you know what makes you stand out from everyone else? Discover your talents and strengths and understand how to make them even better through this StrengthsFinder 2.0 session.	27. Book Club Melissa Gifkins & Stefanie-Alexis Reid Melissa and Stefanie from OALT/ABO book club will be discussing their latest book club pick, "Love is a Four Letter Word" the sequel to "Words that start with B" by Vikki Vansickle. Review some of the questions that will be discussed on the OALT/ABO website and OALT/ABO Facebook page before attending the session. Join in on a discussion of the importance of dialogue on books. Come prepared and enjoy the lively book chit chat!
10:15 - 10:30 a.m.	Break
10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	28. RDA 101 – an Introduction to RDA Alison Hitchens, Cataloguing & Metadata Librarian, University of Waterloo In this session we will review the new cataloguing standard, Resource Description and Access (RDA). Topics include: what & why, the new framework, FRBR/FRAD in RDA, data elements, and an implementation update. Come and prepare yourself for RDA!	29. Planning, Organizing and Executing Library Events or How I Learned to Run an Author Reading and a Human Library With No Experience. Cynthia McKeich, Manager, Seneca College King Campus Library Beyond the day to day business of circulating materials and providing reference, libraries can offer their communities interesting and fun library related events. The King Campus Library of Seneca College has successfully run eight One Book, One Campus events, and Canada's first ever Career Human Library. Giller and Governor General prize winning authors, a Chief of Police and a Juno nominated guitar player (to mention just a few of our guests) have made their way to our small campus for our library events. From planning and inviting to running and surviving, this session will cover the A to Z of how to enjoy organizing library events.	30. Numeracy + Information Literacy = Success Melissa Poremba, Library Technician, Brant Haldimand Norfolk Catholic District School Board "Whether you are working in a school or public library, you are in an ideal position to curb students' math anxiety and show them that math is relevant, interesting, and yes, even fun! Come out and get some ideas on how to use your library's collections and services to integrate numeracy skills development in your traditional information literacy programming."
