47th Annual Conference
47e Conférence Annuelle

APRIL 29 TO MAY 02, 2020

DU 29 AVRIL AU 2 MAI 2020

DURHAM COLLEGE / COLLÈGE DURHAM, OSHAWA

Ontario Association of Library Technicians/
Association des bibliotechniciens de l'Ontario

I invite you to join us for our 47th annual conference at Durham College in Oshawa from April 29 to May 2, 2020. The theme this year is “Books to Ports / Des livres aux ports”.

I wish to express my thanks to Janna Munkittrick-Colton, and the Conference Committee for their hard work in planning, and execution of this fantastic event. I also wish to thank the Board of Directors for their work over the last year.

Hope to see you all there!

Vincent Elit
President, Board of Directors

Message du conseil d'administration

Chers amis et collègues,

Je vous invite à vous joindre à nous pour la 47^{ième} conférence annuelle au collège Durham qui aura lieu à Oshawa, du 29 avril au 2 mai 2020. Le thème de cette année est « Books to Ports / Des livres aux ports ».

Avec un large éventail de sujets et de conférenciers de divers horizons, nous espérons que chacun d'entre vous y trouvera quelque chose d'intéressant. La conférence est le moment idéal pour retrouver de vieux amis et s'en faire de nouveaux ! Notre réception d'ouverture aura lieu le mercredi 29 avril et notre cérémonie de remise de prix se déroulera le vendredi 1^{er} mai à la galerie Robert McLaughlin. Nous comptons sur votre présence pour souligner ces succès et fraterniser.

Je tiens à remercier Janna Munkittrick- Colton et le comité organisateur de la Conférence pour leur travail acharné dans la planification et l'exécution de cet événement. Je tiens aussi à remercier le travail de chaque membre du comité de direction durant la dernière année.

Des informations supplémentaires seront disponibles sur notre site Web (<https://oaltabo.on.ca>) ainsi que sur nos différents médias sociaux au cours des prochains mois. Je vous invite à partager cette invitation avec vos collègues et dans vos réseaux professionnels.

Cordialement,
Vincent Elit
Président, Conseil d'administration

Oshawa is a city full of innovation, with the auto industry, the port and Heritage buildings.

I would like to thank the conference committee and the volunteers who have made this conference possible. Thank you also to our sponsors.

We look forward to seeing you at Durham College, Oshawa on April 29, 2020.

[illegible]

Message de la Coordinatrice de la conférence

J'aimerais souhaiter la bienvenue à tous et toutes au collège Durham et à notre 47^{ième} conférence annuelle, « Books to Ports / Des livres aux ports ». Nous vous offrirons des expériences enrichissantes, novatrices et variées.

La ville d'Oshawa est un centre urbain axé sur l'innovation et elle est reconnue pour son industrie de l'automobile, son port et ses édifices historiques.

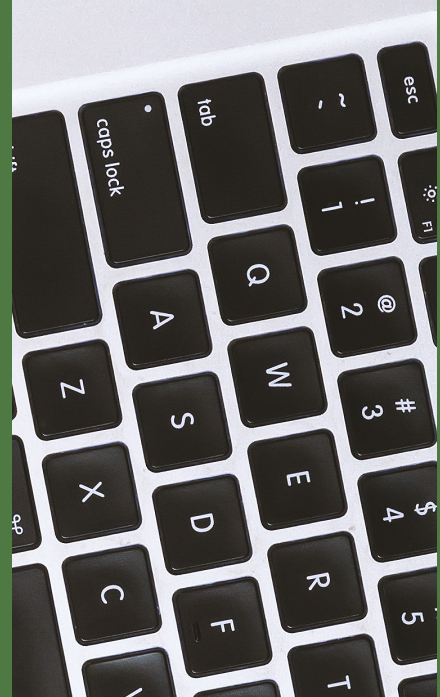

Nous remercions à l'avance les conférenciers locaux qui ont offert de partager leurs connaissances. J'espère que vous profiterez de l'occasion pour développer votre réseau ou vous ressourcer, que ce soit lors d'une session, d'un tour guidé ou simplement en profitant des lieux.

J'aimerais remercier le comité organisateur ainsi que tous les bénévoles qui ont contribué à l'organisation de cette conférence. J'aimerais aussi remercier nos commanditaires pour leurs généreuses contributions.

J'aimerais aussi remercier le comité de direction de l'OALT/ABO pour leur soutien.

Au plaisir de vous voir au collège Durham à Oshawa, le 29 avril 2020.

Janna Munkittrick-Colton
Coordinatrice de la conférence

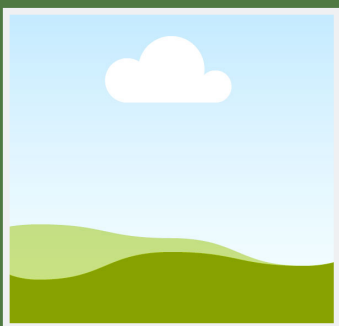

Meet the 2019-2020 Board of Directors

President : Vincent Elit

Vincent Elit is in his third year as President, and has previously held positions in the Ottawa Chapter/Section d'Ottawa as President, Secretary and Archivist. He is currently working as a Senior Library Services Technician at the Courts Administration Service Library, managing their integrated library system and digital resources. Vincent earned his Library and Information Technician Diploma from Algonquin College, and has a Graduate Certificate in e-Publishing. He is currently taking courses as part of the Mohawk College Libraries and Digital Technologies Graduate Certificate Program. In what is left of his spare time, you may find him reading the latest mystery novels in print format.

Treasurer : Lori O'Connor

Internal Communications Coordinator : Sarah Goodyear

Sarah Goodyear has worked as a Library Technician at the Ontario Legislative Library since 2016. She also currently serves as the Promotions Coordinator for the Legislative Library and Research Services. Prior to her role at the Legislative Assembly, Sarah worked in the Library Learning Commons at George Brown College. Sarah earned her Library Technician diploma from Seneca College and has an Honours B.A. in English Literature and Art History from the University of Toronto.

Meet the Board of Directors

2020 Conference Coordinator: Janna Munkittrick-Colton

Janna Munkittrick-Colton is a graduate of Sheridan College. She has worked at the Belleville Public Library for over 42 years. She has had multiple responsibilities at her library from planning and running Children's programs, helping adults find books to now cataloging for her library and working on several projects to update their database. She is past Vice-President; President and Secretary of the OALT/ABO. She is serving her second term as the Conference Coordinator. She is passionate about bringing a wide variety of workshops to our attendees.

Chapter Coordinator: Jeka Dupont

Jeka is a part time Library and Information Technician student at Algonquin College in Ottawa. She has been a member of the Board of Directors for two years serving as the Membership Coordinator before moving into the Chapter Coordinator role in 2019. Originally from a small town in New Brunswick, Jeka left NB to move to the smaller Arctic town of Kimmirut, Nunavut before making her home now in Ottawa. She works for the federal government at the National Research Council's National Science library as the collections assistant. She enjoys spending time with her husband, Chris, playing board games and in her free time can be found with her nose in a book.

Archivist : Tiffany Ribeiro

Tiffany works as a Circulation and News Technician at the Ontario Legislative Library since 2017. She received her Library and Information Technician Diploma from Seneca College. As the OALT/ABO Archivist, she helps to maintain and preserve a collection of the association's older and newer documents. She spends her spare time in local coffee shops and reading the latest thriller.

OALT/ABO 47th Annual Conference Code of Conduct

Code de bonne conduite de la 47e conférence annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

The Ontario Association of Library Technicians/Association des bibliotechniciens de l'Ontario uses the annual conference as a venue to promote the association's mandate to:

1. Define clearly the role of the library and information technician and to make this definition widely known.
2. To publicize the value of library and information technicians and promote a wider understanding and acceptance of their status.
3. To institute recognized standards operating on the provincial level.
4. To work to liaison with related professions and institutions and to promote effective communication among library and information technicians and others in closely related fields.
5. To be receptive and aware of the constant changes and needs in the field of library and information technology, and the community.
6. To disseminate information relating to Library and Information Technicians.

So that the annual conference is a positive reflection of the Association and its mandate conference attendees, speakers, volunteers, and staff of the venues are required to show respect and courtesy throughout the duration of the conference. The Association values the ideas, thoughts, and expression of all those that gather in the Association's name.

Discriminatory language and imagery are not appropriate for any event be that online or in person. The Association will not tolerate harassment in any form. Harassment is understood as any behavior that threatens another person or group, or produces an unsafe environment. It includes offensive verbal comments or non-verbal expressions related to gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religious beliefs, sexual or discriminatory images in public spaces (include online), deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

If at any time a conference attendee, speaker, volunteer, or staff of a venue feels that they have been harassed or that this code of conduct has been breach, it is important that this person report it the OALT/ABO's President. The President will complete a review of all reported violations of the code of conduct. The Board of OALT/ABO will be notified of any reviews.

Adapted from Ontario Library Association's Code of Conduct for OLA Events and Code4Lib Creative Commons Conference Code.

OALT/ABO 47th Annual Conference Code of Conduct

Code de bonne conduite de la 47e conférence annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

*Dans le présent document, le masculin s'applique également à la femmine.

La conférence annuelle de l'Ontario Association of Library Technicians/Association des bibliothécaires de l'Ontario est une tribune pour promouvoir le mandat de l'Association qui consiste à :

1. Définir clairement le rôle du bibliothécaire et du technicien de l'information et faire en sorte que ces définitions soient bien connues.
2. Faire connaître au public la valeur des bibliothécaires et des techniciens de l'information et renforcer la compréhension et l'acceptation de leur statut.
3. Établir des normes reconnues à l'échelle provinciale.
4. Travailler à établir la liaison avec des professions et établissements connexes et promouvoir la communication efficace des bibliothécaires et des techniciens de l'information avec des professionnels de domaines voisins.
5. Être réceptif aux changements et aux besoins des domaines de la bibliothécaire et des technologies de l'information et de la communauté.
6. Diffuser des informations relatives aux bibliothécaires et aux techniciens de l'information.

Afin que la conférence annuelle représente favorablement l'Association et son mandat, les délégués, les orateurs, les intervenants, les bénévoles et le personnel sur les lieux sont tenus de se montrer courtois et respectueux pendant toute la durée de la conférence. L'Association apprécie les idées, les pensées et l'expression de toutes les personnes qui se rassemblent en son nom.

Le langage et les images discriminatoires n'ont pas leur place, qu'il s'agisse d'une activité en ligne ou en personne. L'Association ne tolérera aucune forme de harcèlement. L'Association considère comme du harcèlement tout comportement qui représente une menace pour une autre personne ou un groupe ou qui crée des conditions dangereuses. Cela comprend les commentaires verbaux offensants ou les expressions non verbales liées au sexe, à l'identité sexuelle, l'expression sexuelle, l'orientation sexuelle, un handicap, l'apparence physique, la taille, la race, l'âge et les croyances religieuses; les images sexuelles ou discriminatoires dans les lieux publics (y compris en ligne), les tentatives délibérées d'intimidation, le harcèlement par traque furtive, la prise de photographies et d'enregistrements sans permission, la perturbation prolongée de conversations, de causeries ou d'autres activités, les contacts physiques inappropriés et l'attention sexuelle non sollicitée.

Si, à n'importe quel moment, un délégué, un orateur, un intervenant, un bénévole ou un employé sur les lieux se croit victime de harcèlement ou pense que le présent code de bonne conduite a été enfreint, il est impératif qu'il le signale au président de l'OALT/ABO. Le président procédera à l'examen de toutes les violations signalées associées au code de bonne conduite. Le résultat de tous les examens des violations sera communiqué au conseil d'administration de l'OALT/ABO.

Adapté du Ontario Library Association's Code of Conduct for OLA Events et du Code4Lib Creative Commons Conference Code.

Introduction

The theme for our 47th Annual Conference is BOOKS TO PORTS / DES LIVRES AUX PORTS! Our conference this year will reflect the importance of Books to our world and their connections to Ports.

- All workshops will begin at 10:00 am to allow for local people to navigate the traffic.
- On Thursday afternoon, we will be traveling down to Lakeview Park along the Lakeshore. It is the home to the Oshawa Community Museum, the lake and The Port Authority. Box lunches will be supplied at the luncheon.
 - The Conference Team will contact you following registration with options. We will offer a couple of tours or you can explore the lakeshore.
- Thursday evening will be a relaxing evening at Durham College. There will be a BBQ and a variety of games. If you have a board game at home that you never get to play, bring it along and explore its delights with us.
- Friday evening, we will be traveling to The Robert McLaughlin Gallery for our Banquet and Awards Ceremony and an evening of fun.
 - The Art Gallery offers an evening of fun from 8:00 pm until 10:00 pm – from arts, to lectures to musical experiences.

Note: If you aren't interested in the Banquet you can wander into the downtown (we will supply a list of restaurants that are open) and then return for the fun or the bus which will leave at 10:15 pm. We have been cautioned that you need to explore in groups of more than two.

Information packages will be available at the Registration Desk.

OALT/ABO 47th Annual Conference / La 47e Conférence Annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

Thursday, April 30 / Jeudi, le 30 avril

10:00 am to 11:15 am

1. We are all in this together: Library staff and communities advocating for change

Room: _____

Tracy MacMaster, Seneca College

The presentation looks at the pattern of attacks on library funding around the country and Ontario, in particular we examine successful strategies library staff and the community members have engaged in to successfully push back cuts.

2. Book Restoration

Room: _____

Matt Scholz, Tillsonburg

Making damaged books useful again.
Simple tips to restoring books.

11:30 am to 1:00 pm

3. Spark Your Creativity with Adobe Spark Videos

Room: _____

Alana Otis, Seneca College

In this hands-on session we'll work with Adobe Spark, a free online tool for developing visually appealing videos, web pages, and graphics. Whether you're looking to develop video resources for your library, enhance your online presence or just make videos for fun, this session is for you.

4. Legal Research: from zero to hero

Room: _____

Vincent Elit

This session will look at and explore tools to provide patrons with free legal research. From historical resources to present day, explore the law with examples. This session has been designed for all library types (public, school, academic and special).

2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

5. Leveraging circulation data and market research at your library with BookNet Canada.

Room: _____

Monique Mongeon

Have you ever wondered how borrowers find their next great read? Whether holds are a strong indicator of a book's sales performance or how library borrowing affects a reader's buying habits? How long does the average bestseller stay popular at the library? Which subjects are on the rise this year? Drawing on BookNet, Canada's years of research on Canadian readers, book buyers and borrowers, as well as our nationally tracked sales and library circulation data, we'll dive into the data on all things books. We'll explore how Canadians discover their next great read, how demand patterns compare between the retail and library markets, and how libraries can harness the power of data to identify opportunities to improve collections. You'll come away with customer insights, tools and tactical data-driven strategies to increase efficiencies and better understand your customer.

OALT/ABO 47th Annual Conference / La 47e Conférence Annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

6. Tech Tools Showcase

Room: _____

Nicole Doyle and Susan Pratt
Durham College LIT Program

Join us to learn about some useful and fun tech tools that can help you manage projects, collect information using electronic forms, and create fun trivia games (or activities and assessments for students). In this interactive and hands-on session, we will introduce you to Trello, Google Forms, and Quizlet, three technology tools that can make your life and work easier.

2:00 pm to 4:30 pm

During this workshop will have specific tech resources and step-by-step lesson plans to guide attendees through a short hands-on project. Attendees of each table will work together and learn from each other. Participants will also be encouraged to move from table to table in order to experiment with all of the technologies available in the room. Workshop presenters will be on hand for guidance and discussion throughout.

OALT/ABO 47th Annual Conference / La 47e Conférence Annuelle de l'OALT/ABO

Saturday, May 2/ Samedi le 2 mai

10:00 am to 11:15 am

17. "The Road to Alright"

Room: _____

Meet the Author: Yvonne Van Lankveld

In this work of fiction, she has crafted a relatable story that pulls baby boomer Gracie Sheehan, from her Toronto roots to starting over in New Pelham after she unexpectedly loses her husband and her job in an 8-week period. Starting over does not go as planned, and Gracie's residual need to do good for others leads her to become entangled with a crotchety recluse, his vivacious neighbour, and their complicated lives. A great story about mid-life, personal values, integrity and starting over again. Yvonne will also talk about the journey to getting published and the challenges that writers have.

18. Creating New Collections with Existing Materials : What we learned!

Room: _____

Andrea Bungay, Whitby Public Library

Customer and staff suggestions, along with strategic priorities, led to the Whitby Public Library creating a new children's collection, "Fairy Tales, Myths and Legends", containing books that previously belonged to other collections. Transferring material from one place to another seemed like a straight-forward endeavor, but quickly devolved into a quagmire. Topics to be discussed include the importance of planning before acting, diligent project management, clear communication and keeping diversity at front of mind when creating new collections. The session will outline the many obstacles and setbacks encountered and the key takeaways learned in the process.

11:30 pm to 12:30 pm

19. Dreaming of Inclusion: Breaking down Barriers to Library work for People with Disabilities

Room: _____

Virginia Systma and team

How can we encourage a more diverse workforce? By breaking down the barriers that a diverse workforce might experience, including barriers for library workers with disabilities. Library workers with disabilities discuss barriers to inclusion in Library work. How to support coworkers with disabilities and understanding.

20. Open for All: Service with Empathy and Safety

Room: _____

Ellen Stroud, Oshawa Public Libraries

Oshawa Public Libraries will discuss their strategies for vulnerable customers experiencing mental health issues, homelessness, and other challenges, while maintaining staff and customer security and safety. Successful initiatives as well as lessons learned, can be used as a framework to customize plans for serving everyone with empathy and professionalism.
